

Leadership New Mexico Core Program

The Core Program brings together diverse, influential leaders from around the state for an educational and inspirational experience that is unlike any other.

THE PROGRAM

Leadership New Mexico's Core Program is a 10-month commitment. Each session is designed to understand and address current issues in New Mexico. Each session features speakers who are specialized in their fields. The process offers an opportunity for discussion, inquiry, analysis, and development of solutions for the most pressing issues facing our the state.

Core Program sessions expose participants to different regions and local issues. They experience the unique culture, weaving a broad-based and comprehensive understanding of a multicultural and diverse state.

Each program includes a 2-day retreat and orientation, followed by educational sessions on topics such as:

- Health and Human Services
- Economic Development
- Education
- Energy & Natural Resources
- Government, Crime & Justice and Leadership

RECRUITMENT, SELECTION &

R-#ky@U - Vu

The Core Program is open to all citizens of the state. Leadership New Mexico selects a class each year of 40-45 leaders who represent a cross-section of the various geographic regions as well as public, private, and nonprofit sectors. Special consideration is given to ensure diversity of race, gender, and occupational background.

Applications are accepted January 1st through May 31st and class participants are announced at the end of June. Apply at: <https://www.leadershipnm.org/leadership-programs>
